Auction News

Last week we invited your children to personally invite your friends and families to sign up for our virtual auction. We said we would have a surprise for the class making the most phone calls. Here's how our competition will work.

1. Students personally make a phone call to your friends or family members. They tell them about our upcoming auction, Jesus is my Anchor online from March 16 - 20. They explain to them how to sign up for free at ccs.ggo.bid.
2. Parents help students choose people to call and record the calls their child makes.
3. The list of people contacted is sent to your child's teacher on or before March 16.
4. The class making the most phone calls wins an extra half hour recess on an upcoming sunny afternoon.

We so appreciate your help with this! We're not sure how our virtual auction will go, but we do know, the more people we have signed up, the better.

Temperature Taking

Like we said in last week's Lions Roar, we are well over half way through the school year and we don't want to let down our guard in being careful, so we would like to remind our parents and students to please continue to take your child's temperature before leaving your home. We want to do all we can to make CCS a safe place for all our students and staff. Thank you! We got this and are so proud of how your students have navigated through these uncharted waters with us.

Washington DC Wreath Laying Essay Winners!

Congratulations to Kellen Rooklidge and James Hastings! These two 8th-graders were selected for the honor of placing a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery during our 8th-grade class trip to Washington, D.C., this spring. Joseph Caserta was chosen as the alternate.

To apply for the honor, students had to submit three letters of recommendation along with a thoughtfully-written essay about what it means to be an American. Judges scored each student according to how well they answered the question and the content of their recommendation letters. The judges had a tough job! All six students who applied wrote sincerely about their love for America and received glowing recommendations. They can be proud of their efforts!

Like the soldiers who guard the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, our CCS wreath-laying representatives demonstrate the highest ideals of America: character, attitude, integrity, respectfulness, patriotism, punctuality, and loyalty. We know they will represent our school, our country, and our God to the best of their ability!

We are so proud of you!!
